

Mr. Jerome C. Roth
Immediate Past President, Union Internationale des Avocats

Jerry Roth is a partner at Munger, Tolles & Olson in San Francisco where he specializes in business and international litigation, arbitration and mediation. He represents European, Asian and Latin American clients, as well as U.S. companies in matters abroad. He is ICC-trained, speaks French, Spanish and Italian, and also works in German and Portuguese. Jerry holds a French-language Master's Degree in International, European and French Business Law from the Universite de Paris (Assas). He is Immediate Past President of the Paris-based Union Internationale des Avocats, the world's oldest international lawyers' association. In that capacity, he worked with global bar leaders on substantive legal issues including mediation and protection of the Rule of Law.

