

Mr. Eddie TAM, MPPM
CEO, CIO and Portfolio Manager, Central Asset Investments

Eddie Tam is the Founder, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer of Central Asset Investments, an established multi-strategy investment firm with offices in Hong Kong, Shenzhen and Shanghai. Mr. Tam founded Central Asset Investments in April 2005. He oversees the management of the firm as well as the flagship CAI Global Fund. Primarily, Mr. Tam is responsible for top down asset allocation between strategies, asset classes, geography and themes. Under his leadership, the CAI Global Fund was ranked the #1 best-performing multi-strategy hedge fund globally according to Bloomberg (based on 5-year annual returns) and Barclayhedge in 2013.

Mr. Tam has over 30 years of experience in the financial industry. Mr. Tam was credited as one of the pioneers in Asian equity derivatives, previously heading the Derivatives Sales and Marketing at Credit Lyonnais and Merrill Lynch. Before that, he worked at AT&T Bell laboratories focusing on systems development and integration.

Mr. Tam received his MPPM from Yale School of Management in 1993, holds an M.A.Sc., a B.A.Sc. in Electrical Engineering from the University of Toronto, and is currently an active board member of the International Center of Finance and the Greater China Advisory Board at the Yale School of Management. In October 2010, Mr. Tam was named one of the 25 most influential people in Asian hedge funds by Asian Investor.

Since 2014, Mr. Tam has been a weekly column contributor to Ming Pao, a top-tier newspaper in Hong Kong. Since 2020, Mr. Tam has also been an anchor of Sun channel's weekly program broadcasted on YouTube. Mr. Tam is a frequent guest on leading international and Chinese television channels, including CNBC, Phoenix TV and China Business News, where he shares his economic and investment views, as well as bringing an insightful, predictive and original understanding to politics and foreign policy.
