I am grateful for the award. It not only acknowledges our service to the community but also ignites our determination and passion to provide our services to all individuals in need of professional legal advice.

CHANG JONATHAN KARMEN

C/O DAVIS POLK & WARDWELL

I am proud to give back to the community by providing pro bono legal services to individuals and NGOs in Hong Kong. Pro bono legal services is a small, but important, part of providing those without means access to the legal system in Hong Kong.

CHANG LAI SHAN, ELIZA

CHENG, YEUNG & CO.

By providing pro bono and community services, I hope my modest contribution could serve the profession and community. This award serves as a reminder of the responsibility we bear as lawyers. We owe a social duty to assist those who need help.

CHE XIXUAN

AKIN GUMP STRAUSS HAUER & FELD

Foreign domestic helpers and zoo animals are important components of Hong Kong, yet their rights and welfare are often overlooked. By offering legal assistance, I want them to know that they are not forgotten. I am very proud to be awarded – it reaffirms my commitment to pro bono efforts.

CHEUK YI TING

KIRKLAND & ELLIS

Helping refugees in HK and abroad, and underprivileged children, has broadened my perspective on life, reinforced my determination to help address societal inequalities and problems, and helped me mature as a lawyer and person. I have done service work for 9 years and continue to find it rewarding.

CHEUNG POK MAN

VITUS LAWYERS

This award signifies my unwavering dedication to using my skills for the greater good. By empowering those in need, we strengthen the fabric of our community and demonstrate our commitment to inspire, uplift, and make a lasting impact for a better Hong Kong.

CHEUNG TSZ HIM RYAN

HOGAN LOVELLS

I am tremendously grateful to have the opportunity to serve our pro bono clients, which include organisations that serve a wide spectrum of sectors / people in need of pro bono legal support, including victims of sexual violence, community start-ups, and environmental groups. I believe that it is key for all lawyers in Hong Kong to spend commensurate time to give back to the society which nurtured us, and to promote a culture of service within our profession.

CHEUNG WAI HING

WOO KWAN LEE & LO

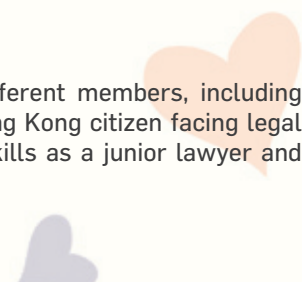

It gives immense satisfaction from helping charitable organizations to make them function more effectively. Attending charitable organizations' activities gives recognition to their work. Serving in government committees is essential for showing support to the government.

CHEUNG YAN WAH CLEMENT

FRESHFIELDS BRUCKHAUS DERINGER

It is a privilege to give back to society by assisting different members, including domestic workers, an asylum seeker and the average Hong Kong citizen facing legal issues. I have gained invaluable insight, developed my skills as a junior lawyer and have made a difference to others' lives.

CHEUNG YU MEI

HO PATRICIA & ASSOCIATES

The law is not a privilege of the legal profession. Rather, we are entrusted with a mission to defend our rights, regardless of one's social or economic status. Working closely with the marginalized community, I believe achieving equal access to justice serves as empowerment for all.

CHIU CHI WAI, ALAN

ELLALAN

Pro Bono/ community service work - It is just the right thing to do.

CHIU HO CHING

COHEN COLIN BERNARD

BOASE COHEN & COLLINS

Pro bono work is not simply an act of charity, it is a commitment to ensuring justice is accessible to those who most need it. In assisting a range of deserving individuals, community groups and non-profit organisations, I am able to make a worthy contribution towards improving our society.

CROMPTON JONATHAN PAUL

REYNOLDS PORTER CHAMBERLAIN

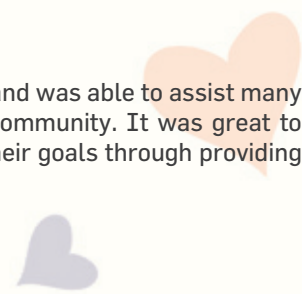

Pro bono and community service reflect the core of RPC culture. They provide important avenues to ensure that all members of society enjoy access to justice, legal advice, and improved community facilities. I am delighted the Law Society has once again recognised my and RPC's hard work for others.

FLOOD SAM THOMAS

WEIL, GOTSHAL & MANGES

I assisted on various pro bono projects over the past year and was able to assist many organisations in furthering their goals and assisting the community. It was great to work with so many organisations and help them achieve their goals through providing focused legal support .

FOK KA SIN

KING & WOOD MALLESONS

Working on and winning the appeal on our client's non-refoulement claim is so far the most rewarding experience in my legal career - it is a testament to how pro bono legal support can make a difference in the lives of individuals facing life-threatening situations.

FONG YIN WAI

DLA PIPER HONG KONG

I am honoured to be part of the pro bono community in Hong Kong. Working on pro bono matters has given me a great sense of purpose by enabling underrepresented individuals to access legal services, allowing social enterprises to save on legal costs to achieve better outcomes, and using my legal knowledge to make a tangible difference in society.

HUMPHREY KIERAN VICTOR FALCONER

O'MELVENY & MYERS

I consider that providing pro-bono legal services is both a duty and a privilege. I am pleased to assist those who cannot afford a lawyer and worthy not-for-profit organisations.
