C. OVERSEAS LAWYERS QUALIFICATION EXAMINATION INFORMATION

The Rules, procedures and guidelines contained in this Package represent the Law Society's endeavour to respond honourably to its responsibilities under the GATS in order to create a level playing field in the admission of overseas lawyers as solicitors in Hong Kong.

1. Requirements for post-admission experience

If you are admitted in a common law jurisdiction, you must satisfy the Law Society that you have at least two years of post-admission experience in the practice of the law of your jurisdiction of admission (including any period credited in respect of articles or equivalent) in order to be eligible to sit the Examination. Please see rule 4(2)(b) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules on page 67. This requirement can be satisfied by working as a qualified lawyer in your home jurisdiction, or as a registered foreign lawyer in Hong Kong.

If you are admitted in a non-common law jurisdiction, you must satisfy the Law Society that you have had not less than 5 years of experience in the practice of the law of the jurisdiction of your admission in order to be eligible to sit the Examination. Please see rule 5(1) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules on page 67.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have already gained the necessary experience at the time when they submit their applications. No prospective application will be accepted.

Please refer to the meaning of "experience in the practice of law" on pages 20-22.

2. Application Form

In order to qualify to sit or be exempt from sitting the Examination, you must complete the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination Application Form (Form A) and submit it to the Department of Standards and Development with all necessary documentation. The fee for having your application processed is HK$3,300.00, which is non-refundable. Please note that there is a further fee payable on registration to sit the Examination, as provided in the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) (Fees) Rules.

Payment of the requisite fee can be made by cheque or by bank draft payable to "The Law Society of Hong Kong" or by telegraphic transfer to the following account of the Law Society:

bank code — 004
branch no. — 583
account no. — 009055-001

If you wish to pay by telegraphic transfer, please inform the Law Society in advance and please note that you shall bear all bank charges including the Law Society's bank charges payable for the telegraphic transfer.

The closing date for receipt of application forms to sit the 2013 Examination (Form A) is Friday 28 June 2013.

Enquiries relating to applications to sit or be exempt from the Examination should be directed to the Assistant Director, Regulation and Guidance at adrg@hklawsoc.org.hk or telephone nos. 2846 0523.

You are strongly advised to submit your application as early as possible to allow yourself more time to respond to enquiries that may be raised during the processing of your application. Try to avoid leaving the submission of your application until the closing date.

Please refer to these Guidelines as to whether you are eligible to seek an exemption from any Head of the Examination. All relevant documentation in support of the application should be provided when your application is submitted.

You are again strongly advised to submit your application as early as possible so that you will be notified of the outcome of your application in time for planning any revision for the Examination.

5. Certificates

If you meet the criteria for exemption from sitting all Heads of the Examination or are exempted from sitting all Heads, you will be issued a Certificate of Exemption from Sitting the Examination and may proceed with the next stage of the admission procedure. Unless the Law Society otherwise determines, a Certificate of Exemption shall be valid for a period of 12 months from the date of its issue.

If you are eligible to sit the Examination, you will be issued a Certificate under Section 3(2) of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules ("Section 3(2) Certificate") stating the Heads of the Examination which you will be required to sit. If you have applied for exemption from any Head you will be advised in writing whether you have been granted an exemption from that Head. This Certificate is valid for 12 months (unless revoked earlier by the Law Society) from the date of issue.

6. A review of the Law Society's decision under Section 3(2)

Rule 9 of the Overseas Lawyers (Qualification for Admission) Rules provides that an applicant may ask for his application to be reviewed by the Law Society within one month of receiving notification from the Law Society of its decision and upon payment of the fee of HK$1,500.00. You will have one opportunity to have your application reviewed and the time limit specified in the Rules will be strictly followed. A review will be determined on the basis of and only of the information previously provided to the Foreign Lawyers Committee. You should therefore ensure that all documents are placed before the Foreign Lawyers Committee within the specified time limits.

The closing date for registration to sit the 2013 Examination is Friday 16 August 2013.

If you are awaiting the outcome of an application for review with respect to exemption from any Head of the Examination at the time of the closing date, you may register upon receipt of the Law Society's determination provided you do so immediately.

8. Supplementary Information Package

A Supplementary Information Package containing –

- the standards, syllabi and reading lists for Heads I to V
- Examiners' comments on the 2008-2012 Examinations for Heads I to V
- past Examination papers
- Guidance Notes on Examination Techniques

is also available on the Law Society website.

9. Past Examination papers

Examination papers for the 1995 to 2012 Examinations are posted on the Law Society website. Any past Examination paper is for guidance only. It should not be assumed that the format in subsequent Examinations will be identical.

10. Examination standard

The test papers for each Head of the Examination are set at the standard expected of a newly qualified solicitor in Hong Kong who has completed a law degree (or its equivalent), the professional training course (PCLL) and a two-year traineeship prior to admission. An examiner is entitled to expect a newly qualified solicitor to have a good working knowledge and understanding of the subject and to demonstrate the ability to apply that knowledge and understanding correctly, and in a manner appropriate to everyday legal practice. There is no bell curve used for marking of the scripts.

Examination pass rates for each Written Head and for the Examination overall from 1995 - 2012 were:

Year	Head I	Head II	Head III	Head IV	Head V	Exam
1995	75	12	50	93	-	70

11. Access to the High Court Library and the members' zone of the Law Society website

- (a) Candidates for the 2013 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination have been granted permission to use the High Court Library. Upon arrival at the entrance of the library, candidates will be requested to produce their Section 3(2) Certificate to identify themselves to the library staff.

The address of the High Court Library is LG4/F, High Court, 38 Queensway, Hong Kong.

Enquiries relating to the High Court Library should be directed to its Service Counter at telephone nos. (852) 2825 4464.

- (b) Candidates for the 2013 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination will be given access to the members' zone of the Law Society website at www.hklawsoc.org.hk by the allocation of a password to each of the candidates upon acceptance by the Law Society of their application to sit the 2013 Examination.

With the password, a candidate can then gain access, for a period until the end of the 2013 Examination, to the Law Society Circulars and any advertisements on preparatory courses placed with the Law Society posted respectively under the section "Circulars" and "Legal Miscellany" in the members' zone of the Law Society website.

The Law Society is aware that preparatory courses had been provided in the past by the following course providers:

- IP Learning (website address: <http://ip-learning.com>)
- LexOmnibus (website address: <http://www.lexomnibus.com/>; <http://www.olqe.com>)
- Paul Kent Legal Training (website address: <http://www.pskent.com>)

Candidates are advised to contact the preparatory course providers directly to check if they are providing any courses for the forthcoming 2013 Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination. The Law Society does not endorse nor accredit any of the courses.

12. Preparation for the Examination

The Examination will test candidates on the relevant law up to 31 August 2013.

Preparation for the Examination by candidates should be carried out by way of self study and research in accordance with the syllabi and reading lists set out in the Supplementary Information Package and taking into account the standards established by the Law Society in relation to each Head of the Examination.

Candidates are advised that some subjects of the Examination are more difficult to pass because the requirements of the law in these areas are particularly unique to Hong Kong (for example, Head I Conveyancing and Head II Civil and Criminal Procedure) and a lengthier study period may be required.

Candidates are reminded that practicality should be an important consideration when they answer the questions in the Examination. They are expected to approach the issues from a practical perspective.

To assist the candidates in preparing for the Examination, the Law Society has produced some guidance notes on examination techniques. The guidance notes will be provided to the candidates upon their registration to sit the Examination.

13. Withdrawal from sitting the Examination

If you find that you are unable to take the Examination after you have registered to do so and have paid the requisite fee, you should, prior to the date of commencement of the Examination, notify in writing the Law Society of your intention to withdraw and specify the reasons for doing so.

Withdrawal from sitting the Examination refers to withdrawal from sitting all Heads of the Examination as stated on the Section 3(2) Certificate, which you are required to sit. Withdrawal from sitting selective Heads is not allowed.

If you wish to apply for a refund of the registration fee, you should submit the written notification of your intention to withdraw, with reasons, together with an application for a refund of the registration fee not less than 14 days before the commencement date of the Examination (on or before 24 October 2013). The Law Society has the discretion to allow, in appropriate cases, a refund of the registration fee after deduction of an administration fee determined by the Law Society.

14. Absence from the Examination

Any candidate who fails to attend the sitting of any Head of the Examination after registering to sit the Examination will be deemed to have failed that Head.

15. The Examination Procedures

The Examination Procedures are contained on pages 14 to 17 of this Information Package. To pass the Examination you are required to sit and pass at one sitting all Heads specified in your Section 3(2) Certificate.

Attention is drawn to the Re-examination provisions in paragraph 4 of the Examination Procedures which provide:

- "(a) Subject to subparagraph (b), where a candidate does not pass all the Written Heads specified in his Section 3(2) Certificate, that candidate must at the next Examination which the candidate sits, resit all the Written Heads which had been specified in the candidate's Section 3(2) Certificate for the preceding Examination for which the candidate did not receive a pass, in addition to any subject(s) he may be required to sit in accordance with the then applicable rules and guidelines.*
- (b) Subject to paragraph 8, a candidate must pass at one sitting of the Examination all the Written Heads that he is required to sit or resit and the Oral Head (if required).*
- (c) Resits will be held at the next regular sitting of the Examination. There will be no special sittings scheduled for candidates wishing to resit any Heads."*

16. Format of all written test papers for the 2013 Examination

Candidates should note that the test papers for the written Heads will be of 3½ hours duration with no specific time allocated to reading and writing.

17. Format of the Accounts and Professional Conduct Head for the 2013 Examination

Candidates should note that the test paper for Head IV - Accounts and Professional Conduct will be divided into two parts - Part A concerned with accounts issues and comprising one question carrying 25 marks, and Part B concerned with professional conduct issues, comprising 3 questions carrying 25 marks each.

A pass in both parts must be achieved in order to pass the test paper overall.

18. Proficiency in the use of English language

The Council of the Law Society has determined, in principle, that the necessary legislation should be amended to include the achievement of a standard of English at the level of a grade "B" in the Use of English Examination (UEE) or 600 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or IELTS equivalent as a requirement for entry into a trainee solicitor contract in Hong Kong and for overseas lawyers seeking admission as a solicitor in Hong Kong.

Notice is therefore given that a minimum English standard requirement may be required of Examination candidates at some time in the future.

19. Examination materials

As the Examination is one of aptitude rather than memory, the four written Heads of the Examination will be tested on an open book basis. Candidates will be permitted to bring into the Examination any book, document or other written material.

20. Computers / calculators, mobile phones etc.

You may bring and use a silent and non-programmable calculator into the Examination. You are strongly advised not to bring any computer or electronic / communication devices (e.g. tablet or laptop computer, PDA, mobile phones, pagers) into the Examination. If you have brought along any of such devices, you must turn it off (including the alarm function) and put it under your seat in a position clearly visible to the invigilators. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

21. Candidates with disabilities

Any candidate who suffers from a disability necessitating special requirements to sit the Examination should make an application in writing addressed to the Director of Standards and Development not less than one month prior to the commencement date of the Examination (on or before 7 October 2013):

- advising the nature of the disability and its effect in relation to ability to sit the Examination;
- including a medical report / certificate in support; and
- specifying the special requirements requested.

22. Marking Procedures

All Written Heads of the Examination will be marked anonymously. Every script will be marked by a first examiner. A second examiner will mark every script for which the first examiner has given a mark below 52 and a representative selection of other papers intended to convey an impression of the general standard in the Examination. The Chief Examiners will be provided with all the scripts for each Written Head to ensure that there is consistency in marking amongst examiners of the same Head, and that there is consistency in marking amongst examiners of different Heads. In particular, the Chief Examiners will review the scripts for all Written Heads which fall into the following categories:

- (i) all scripts which the examiners were unable to agree upon a final mark;
- (ii) all scripts given a mark below 52; and
- (iii) a representative selection of other scripts to convey an impression of the general standard in the examination.

The Chief Examiners will make a determination on the final mark for each script.

23. Examination results

Every effort will be made to release the Examination results as soon as possible following the Examination. A provisional date for the release of the results is 28 February 2014.

Result slips will be sent by e-mail to the e-mail correspondence address provided by the candidates followed by hard copies to be sent by regular post or air mail. Candidates are advised to ensure that they submit up-to-date e-mail and correspondence addresses to ensure timely notification of results.

24. Copies of scripts

After the release of the Examination results, a candidate may request for copies of the examination question books, his scripts and the records of examiners' comments on his scripts in respect of the Examination, subject to the payment of the photocopying charges at HK$300.00 per script, HK$50.00 per each Head of the records of examiners' comment and HK$1.00 per page per examination question book. The scripts and the records of examiners' comments will be destroyed one year after the date of the release of the Examination results. A candidate may therefore only request for copies of the scripts and the records of examiners' comments on the scripts with respect to the latest Examination.

25. Application for review

A candidate may apply for a review of his script(s) by the Chief Examiner. An application for review shall be made in writing (addressed to the Director of Standards and Development) within 3 weeks from the date of the Law Society's letter notifying the candidate the result of the Examination, together with:

- (i) a written submission giving the brief grounds for review (no more than one A4 size page of 14-point type); and
- (ii) a fee of HK$1,000.00 per Head by cheque or by bank draft made out to "The Law Society of Hong Kong".

The review process includes:

- (a) a check of the candidates' script(s) to ensure that all the questions answered have been marked and the marks have been recorded accurately and computed correctly and;
- (b) a review by the Chief Examiner of the marking procedure of the script(s).

In considering whether to apply for a review, candidates are reminded that in accordance with paragraph 22 above, all fail scripts have been marked twice by Examiners and reviewed by a Chief Examiner before the results were released.

If the review is successful for a Head, the review fee for the particular Head will be refunded.

26. Applications to resit the Examination

Candidates who fail the 2013 Examination will, subject to the provisions of the Examination Procedures, be able to resit the subjects for which they did not receive a pass in addition to any subject(s) required in accordance with the then applicable rules and guidelines at the next normal sitting which will be one year later.

To resit the Examination, candidates are required to submit:

- (i) a fresh Form A,

F. GUIDELINES FOR EXEMPTION FROM SITTING ALL OR PARTS OF THE OVERSEAS LAWYERS QUALIFICATION EXAMINATION

These guidelines set out the current general principles that will be followed by the Law Society when considering applications to be exempt from sitting all or part of the Examination, and will be reviewed from time to time.

Rule 8 of the Rules provides that where applicants are admitted in more than one jurisdiction, they will be treated according to their first jurisdiction unless they have not less than 3 years of post-admission experience in the practice of the law of their second jurisdiction and make an election to be treated according to their second jurisdiction.

Applicants admitted to practise in common law jurisdictions are not required to sit Head V

(a) with 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law

Only those applicants who are able to demonstrate to the Law Society's satisfaction that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law are eligible to apply for exemption or be exempted from sitting any of the four written Heads of the Examination.

(b) with less than 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who do not satisfy the 5 year experience requirement will be required to sit the four written Heads of the Examination:

Head I	Conveyancing
Head II	Civil and Criminal Procedure
Head III	Commercial and Company Law
Head IV	Accounts and Professional Conduct and are NOT eligible to apply for exemption from any Head.

Applicants admitted to practise in non-common law jurisdictions

(a) with 5 or more years of experience in the practice of the law or their jurisdiction of admission

Applicants are required to sit and pass the four written Heads of the Examination and the oral Head V, Principles of Common Law, unless otherwise exempted from any of those Heads in accordance with the Guidelines.

(b) with less than 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants should refer to rule 5(2) of the Rules.

1. Applicants Admitted in Common Law Jurisdictions

- (a) Category A - applicants admitted to practise as Solicitors, Barristers and Solicitors, Advocates or Attorneys and who have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who are able to satisfy the Law Society that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law (see Notes below):

- are required to sit Head I (Conveyancing), unless otherwise exempted in accordance with the guideline for exemption under Category C or D.
- are exempt from sitting Head II (Civil and Criminal Procedure) under rule 4(1) of the Rules.
- are eligible to apply for exemption from sitting Heads III (Commercial and Company Law) and IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct) of the Examination. Exemption from these Heads may be granted if they are able to demonstrate, to the Law Society's satisfaction, experience, knowledge and/or training which is relevant to those Heads.
- Demonstration of completion of courses in the subjects covered by the relevant Heads on its own will not be sufficient for the purpose of exemption.

Notes:

- (1) For the purpose of these Guidelines, the Law Society will regard the following as comprising "experience in the practice of law":
- (i) the professional stage of legal education (post-academic and pre-admission), including but not limited to service as a trainee solicitor or articled clerk in the applicant's jurisdiction of admission gained in the 10 year period immediately preceding the application.

Remarks:

- any training period in excess of the statutory training period required for admission is not recognised;
- if an applicant has been admitted in more than one jurisdiction and completed articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training in more than one jurisdiction, only the statutory period of articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training required for admission in his jurisdiction of admission as determined under rule 8 of the Rules will count. No double counting of the period of articled clerkship or trainee solicitor training will be recognised;

— for example, if there is no statutory requirement for an applicant to complete any trainee solicitor training or the equivalent training in order to be admitted in a jurisdiction, pre-admission experience in that jurisdiction is not recognised.

(ii) post-admission experience which was:

(aa) gained in the 10 year period immediately preceding the application

(bb) in the practice of law in the capacity of a practitioner of the law of the jurisdiction in which the applicant was admitted and

(cc) properly authorised to do so according to the rules and regulations of the place in which the applicant carried on his practice of law. For instance,

- If an applicant practises in the PRC based on his non PRC legal qualification, he has to provide a certified copy of his PRC practising licence or written confirmation issued by the PRC Justice Bureau or other proper authority to verify that he was properly authorised to practise in the PRC as a qualified legal practitioner based on his non PRC legal qualification.
- If an applicant practises in Japan based on his non Japanese legal qualification, he has to provide a certified copy of certificate or written confirmation issued by the Japan Federation of Bar Associations or other proper authority to verify that he was properly authorised to practise in Japan as a qualified legal practitioner based on his non Japanese legal qualification.

The examples are non-exhaustive.

Remarks:

— In Hong Kong, only experience gained as a registered foreign lawyer will count. Paralegal experience gained by overseas qualified lawyers working in Hong Kong law firms (outside the period approved under the Paralegal Scheme*) will not count.

* repealed

- In order for the in-house experience to be recognised as experience in the practice of law, such experience must be comparable to that of a private practitioner in the practice of the law. The application will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
 - The academic qualifications such as LLM cannot be recognised as "experience in the practice of law".
 - Part-time experience may not be recognised as "experience in the practice of law".
- (2) In order to meet the 5 year experience requirement for exemption from Heads II, III and IV, applicants will have to demonstrate that they have already gained the necessary experience at the time of submitting their application. Prospective applications will not be accepted.

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category A

To be eligible for exemption from Heads III and IV, applicants must satisfy the Law Society that they have

- (a) at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law, AND
- (b) experience, knowledge and/or training which is relevant to Heads III (Commercial and Company Law) and IV (Accounts and Professional Conduct).

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek an exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The following information must also be provided in support of an application for exemption:

- (1) verification of their service as articled clerks or trainee solicitors in their home jurisdiction, in the form of a letter issued by the firm which employed them;
- (2) verification of any post-academic and pre-admission professional courses undertaken in their home jurisdiction, in the form of a letter or certificate from the institution offering the course;
- (3) verification of periods of post-admission experience in the practice of law, in the form of letter/s issued by the firm/s which have employed them, setting out the precise periods of employment and areas of experience; and
- (4) any other relevant information.

(b) Category B - Applicants admitted to practise as Barristers and who have at least 5 years of experience in the practice of law

Applicants who are able to demonstrate to the Law Society's satisfaction that they have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of law are exempt from sitting Head II under rule 4(1) of the Rules.

Applications by Barristers for exemption from any other Head on the basis of their experience, knowledge and/or training will be considered by the Foreign Lawyers Committee on a case-by-case basis.

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category B

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek an exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The information contained in the letter should be supported by original letters of reference addressed to the Law Society from practising lawyers or members of their professional body of at least 5 years standing, regarding the applicant's experience and any other relevant information. The Law Society may require further information to be provided.

(c) Category C - Exemption from Head I (Conveyancing)

Procedure for applying for exemption under Category C

Applicants are required to provide full details of the nature and extent of their conveyancing experience in Hong Kong, supported by a letter of reference from the principal(s) of the firm(s) where they have gained that experience.

(d) Category D - Discretionary exemption in exceptional circumstances

The Council may in its absolute discretion grant to an applicant from a common law jurisdiction exemption from all or any part of the Examination which the applicant might otherwise be required to sit, if the Council is satisfied that:

- (i) the applicant possesses an expertise not commonly available in Hong Kong; AND
- (ii) there will be a benefit to Hong Kong and/or the legal profession in Hong Kong in granting such an exemption.

This exemption will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

No exemptions have been granted under this Category since it was introduced in 1997.

Applicants should provide full details of the extent of their experience and testimonials in support of their claims as to (i) and (ii) above from senior members of their profession.

2. Applicants Admitted in Non-Common Law Jurisdictions

Applicants whose first jurisdiction of admission is a non-common law jurisdiction and who have 5 or more years of experience in the practice of the law of their jurisdiction of admission may apply for exemption from any Head of the Examination, which will be considered by the Foreign Lawyers Committee on a case-by-case basis.

Procedure for making an application for exemption

Applicants are required to provide a letter specifying the grounds upon which they seek a discretionary exemption from any particular Head of the Examination. The information contained in the letter should be supported by original letters of reference addressed to the Law Society from practising lawyers or members of their professional body of at least 5 years standing, regarding the applicant's experience and any other relevant information. After you have been granted exemption from passing all of the subjects in the Examination, or have passed the required subjects in the Examination, you must apply to the Law Society (marked to the attention of "Registration Section") for a "Certificate of Eligibility for Admission as a Solicitor". The supporting documents and application fee are:

- (a) (i) a certified copy of your Certificate of Exemption from Sitting the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination (paragraph 5 on page 6 of this Information Package); or
- (ii) a certified copy of your Result Slip which indicates that you have passed all of the required subjects in the Examination (there is no time limit for you to rely on your Result Slip for admission purpose).

- (b) your Certificate of Good Standing issued by the relevant Law Society or equivalent of your jurisdiction of admission / call. The Certificate must be not more than 4 months from the date of its issue when received by the Law Society for your Application for Certificate of Eligibility for Admission. If you are admitted / called in more than one jurisdiction, the Certificates of Good Standing from each of the jurisdictions of admission must be provided;

NOTE:

The Certificates of Good Standing must be sent by the issuing bodies DIRECTLY to the Law Society marked to the attention of the Registration Section. You are responsible for giving the necessary instructions to the issuing bodies and making all necessary arrangements at your own cost.

- (d) a completed Form 5 (affidavit of identity);
- (e) a cheque HK$1,500.00 payable to "The Law Society of Hong Kong" for the application fee;

The Practising Certificate (Special Conditions) Rules came into operation on 1 February 2003. One effect of the Rules is that every applicant for the issue of a first practising certificate must give to the Law Society 6 weeks' notice of intention to apply. Not until the expiration of those 6 weeks can application be made for the issue of a practising certificate. However, application in Form 1C for admission may be made contemporaneously with the notice of intention to apply for a practising certificate.

3. Certificate of Eligibility for Admission

After your documents have been checked, a Form 3 (Certificate of Eligibility for Admission as a Solicitor) will be issued to you.

It may take up to 4 weeks to issue the Form 3 depending on the workload of the Law Society. Do not telephone the Law Society until the end of this period.

4. Motion Papers

After you have received the Form 3, you must prepare and file a motion paper with the High Court within 2 months of the date of the Form 3: rule 4(1A) of the Admission and Registration Rules at page 75.

If you fail to do so, you will have to apply for another Form 3 (see Step 2) and a further application fee is payable. The Law Society has no discretion to extend this time limit.

A sample motion paper is attached at page 55. The motion paper must be accompanied by -

- (a) the original Form 3 certificate issued by the Law Society;
- (b) a cheque for $1,135.00 payable to "The Government of the Hong Kong SAR" for the application fee; and
- (c) the name of the person who will move your admission and a statement as to whether that person is a barrister or solicitor.

It is a requirement of rule 4(2) of the Admission and Registration Rules that the original Form 3 certificate accompany your motion paper. Do not file your motion paper before you obtain the Form 3 from the Law Society.

You must serve a certified copy of the motion paper and the Form 3 on the Law Society and the Secretary for Justice at the same time as the papers are filed at the Court: rule 4(3) of the Admission and Registration Rules at page 76.

The copy delivered to the Law Society must be accompanied by the name of the person who will move your admission and a statement as to whether that person is a barrister or solicitor. If the name of the person moving your admission changes, you should notify the Law Society immediately by fax on (852) 2845 0387.

The Secretary for Justice will write to you and advise whether he has any objection to your admission. A copy of the letter will be sent to the Court and the Law Society.

The Law Society will not issue you a letter if your papers are in order.

If your papers are not in order, you will be advised by the Law Society or the Secretary for Justice of the further steps which you need to take.

A further fee of $360.00 for entering your name on the roll is payable to the High Court after your admission. A demand note for the fee will be issued to you by the Court.

General notes

You must read the notes attached to Form 1C carefully at page 49. Any amendments to the attached forms must be initialled by the declarant and the witness. If a document is not in a form acceptable to the Law Society it will be returned to you for amendment and re-execution.
