Important Notice

This Enquiry is a service provided by the Law Society to members whose firms are instructed to act for or in relation to an application for a grant of representation of the estate of a deceased, or the Committee of an MIP under a Court Order, to make a general enquiry amongst fellow members of the Law Society as to whether the deceased had or the MIP had made a will, codicil or other testamentary disposition.

Any response to the enquiry shall be directed to the enquiring firm. No response will be made by the Law Society.

The Law Society assumes no responsibility whatsoever for its publication of or its finding in the Enquiry.

Personal Information Collection Statement

The personal data collected in this form ("the data") will be used by the Law Society of Hong Kong ("the Society") for the purpose of informing members of the Society of your search for the wills, codicils and other testamentary dispositions made by the data subject named in this form and for other related purposes. The data subject's identifying particulars will be published by the Society in its circulars to members so that contact can be made with you by any members who wish to respond to your search request.

The data may be provided to such persons within the Society whose proper business it is to have access to and assist in the processing of the data collected in this form and directly related matters. The data may also be provided to such other persons who may help the Society in attaining the purpose above-mentioned.

Any data that is provided to anyone outside the Society will be restricted to what is necessary and not excessive to achieve any intended purpose.

You have the right to request access to and correction of the data. Any such request should be addressed to the Secretary General, the Law Society of Hong Kong, 3/F, Wing On House, 71 Des Voeux Road Central, Hong Kong.
