Hong Kong

Dear President,

Implementation of Integrated Court Case Management System ("iCMS") for employees' compensation cases of District Court and summons cases of Magistrates' Courts

I would like to inform the Law Society of Hong Kong that following the implementation of iCMS in personal injuries action, tax claim proceedings and civil action proceedings in the District Court earlier this year, the application of the iCMS will be extended to cover employees' compensation cases of the District Court and summons cases of the Magistrates' Courts. Court users may use iCMS for electronic filing and payments related to these cases with effect from 30 December 2022.

2. The relevant Implementation Notices issued by the Chief Justice pursuant to Section 32 of the Court Proceedings (Electronic Technology) Ordinance (Cap. 638) are published in the Gazette today. A copy of the Implementation Notices, relevant legislation, e-Practice Directions, administrative instructions, user guides, demonstration video clips and answers to frequently asked questions, etc. are available on the Judiciary's dedicated webpage (https://www.judiciary.hk/en/e_courts/index.html). Court users may also make enquiries by emailing us at enquiry@judiciary.hk, or calling the general enquiry hotline and the technical helpline respectively at 2477 1002 and 2886 6474, or visiting the Help Centre at 5/F, Wanchai Tower, 12 Harbour Road, Wan Chai.

3. If you have any questions about the phased implementation of iCMS, please do not hesitate to call me at 2825 8422.

Yours sincerely,
