

Notice for the Recruitment of Headnote Writers

The Board of Review (Inland Revenue Ordinance) (the Board) is an independent statutory body constituted under section 65 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) to determine tax appeals.

The Inland Revenue Board of Review Decisions (IRBRD) is a publication of the Board which contains selected decisions on tax appeals. The IRBRD is issued quarterly and each issue contains around 4 to 8 decisions. Headnote is prepared for every decision to provide readers with effective summaries of the appeal cases.

The Board is inviting interested junior barristers of the Bar and solicitors of the Law Society Hong Kong to serve as headnote writers. Headnote writers are expected to prepare draft headnotes for decisions assigned to them in around 3 to 4 weeks. They are also required to keep track and alert the Board of any newly decided principles involved in the decisions. A standard rate of HK$1,000 is remunerated for a normal case and an enhanced rate of HK$1,500 for cases of substantial length or complexity.

Those interested may send their application with a CV by post or by email to this Board at the below address by 28 January 2025. Please specify the subject “Recruitment of headnote writers” on the envelope / at the subject.
