

The Asian Century: A Borderless Trade and Investment Environment in Hong Kong

Monday, 5 October 2015

INTRODUCTION

The legal profession in Hong Kong continues to thrive alongside Hong Kong's growing reputation as an international financial centre. With an independent judiciary, a robust common law legal system, entrenched best practices and regulatory processes of an international standard, Hong Kong remains one of the world's major international legal hubs. Hong Kong is the main financial portal into Mainland China and it has always been among the top IPO destinations in the world.

This complimentary breakfast session aims at introducing to the participants the unique features of Hong Kong's legal system, the advantage of doing business in Hong Kong and what Hong Kong can offer as an international arbitration venue.
